RICE PAPER

The Asian Canadian Writers' Workshop is a non-profit organisation that offers manuscript evaluation services, advice in dealing with copyright, film options and contracts, and all other aspects of the publishing and performing arts. ACWW produces Rice Paper, an informative, quarterly newsletter, and Vancouver's annual Go For Broke Revue, a three-day performance and reading extravaganza featuring Asian Canadian writers and performers from across the country.

Membership: The annual membership fee is $25. Membership includes a subscription to Rice Paper, special discounts for our workshops and events, and access to our consultation services. Please send your name, address and cheque to the following address:

Summer '97

ALIVE OR DEAD? CANADA tales

Impressions of:

expressed through graphics, poetry, fiction or non-fiction, from Canadians or otherwise, an attempt at something lost, or never there? Diversity and lotsa political hullabaloo we got, but there are much better tales to tell . . .

All submissions must include authors' bio notes; in-depth but not deep; these are as important as the submissions—no life stories, but family roots—from whence came I & mine? Profession? Age, etc? It's people who tell the stories—an' it's the stories that create and define community.

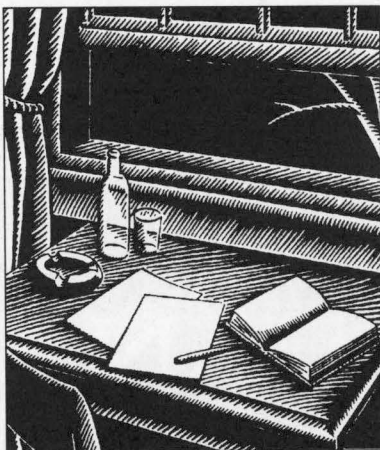

Send submissions and S.A.S.E. to:

THE CAPILANO REVIEW

FRIENDS AND BENEFACTORS PROGRAM

For just a small donation you can have

- a tax receipt
- an exciting back issue or two *
(one for a friend, two for a benefactor)
- years of great reading
- invitations to TCR launches and events
- your name in lights (in TCR)
- the satisfaction of knowing you are contributing to Canadian culture.

The Capilano Review publishes 95% Canadian work. The money you donate goes to artists and writers and the costs of producing their work. Please help support TCR. If you can afford more than $75, our gratitude will be eternal.
