

Robin Blaser / bb gun

I've had 80 years
of this century never forget what you know
say it over and over – “the communicability of experience is decreasing” explanations are bb guns splattering – smile then, hopefully what have you
not said; just tell,
know your century
for its wickedness and tell the love of it
don't take it with you, tell,
tell whose fault was it,
tell what can I do
to forgive it!
what then
is humanity?
