Wendy Oakman

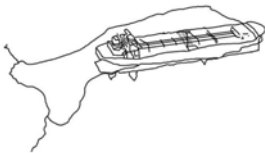

Use this deck to meditate on history and how past and present intersect to illuminate issues of race, class, and gender in your society. Uncover the struggles of the last century as the cards guide you through a discovery of the failures of society to truly change and the impacts those failures still have on your life.

THE FOOL

Who would have guessed
That yelling into the void
Would be so enjoyable
So deadening

THE HERMIT

When they pulled
Those sea birds
Out of that greasy water
I knew I would never have kids

THE MAGICIAN

Beneath the cacti
Beneath the land
There is garbage
A lot of garbage
Our garbage
That quietly winds its way
Through the Fraser Canyon
Past the valley
Past the river
Into the desert hills
