

Writing and Reading

GEORGE BOWERING

"These essays deserve attention from anyone who cares about how literature is made and works."

— Tom Sandborn, Vancouver Sun

"Whatever his idiosyncrasies, Bowering is never dull, and it is rewarding to have his further thoughts on Judith Fitzgerald, Robert Kroetsch, Alice Munro, and Joe Rosenblatt, on the books he read in 1967, and on the landscape of Oliver, B.C. "

— Nicholas Bradley, The Ormsby Review

Hungry Slingshots

LOUIS CABRI

"Smart, sometimes silly, and always biting, Cabri's poems are poetic products par excellence."

— Jonathan Ball, Winnipeg Free Press
