The purpose of the Journal is to reflect activities of the sponsoring institutions in promoting scholarly work on the history, language, institutions, and culture of the Greek people from the late Byzantine period to the present. The articles which appear in the Journal of Modern Hellenism are those prepared by the faculty of the institutions, and those of outside scholars offered in seminars, conferences, and special lectures sponsored by them.

Two copies of any article should be submitted and must be in a form suitable for publication. Notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript. However, most Macintosh-based programs are compatible. IBM™ and compatible users must save their manuscripts as either a Word, WordPerfect or ASCII file. Manuscripts and disks will not be returned unless specifically requested and a return envelope with postage is included.

The views expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsoring institutions. It should be noted that wherever possible Greek names are written in their Greek form.

The annual subscription to the Journal is $15.00. A limited number of back copies available at $10.00 each. To subscribe or acquire back copies, write to Editor, Journal of Modern Hellenism, 50 Goddard Avenue, Brookline, MA 02146 USA.
