The Journal of Modern Hellenism is a refereed journal published annually for the Greek Studies Program of Hellenic College, the Center for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies of Queens College, City University of New York, the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Center for Hellenic Studies at Simon Fraser University, Canada, and the Hellenic Government/Karakas Family Foundation Program in Greek Studies, University of Missouri, St. Louis.

The purpose of the Journal is to reflect activities of the sponsoring institutions in promoting scholarly work on the history, language, institutions, and culture of the Greek people from the late Byzantine period to the present. The articles which appear in the Journal of Modern Hellenism are those prepared by the faculty of the institutions, and those of outside scholars offered in seminars, conferences, and special lectures sponsored by them.

The views expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsoring institutions. It should be noted that wherever possible Greek names are written in their Greek form.

The annual subscription to the Journal is $15.00. A limited number of back copies are available at $15.00 each. To subscribe or acquire back copies, write to the Editor, Journal of Modern Hellenism, 50 Goddard Avenue, Brookline, MA 02445 USA.

The Legacy of Harry Psomiades

A worthy descendant of the last Byzantine stronghold of Hellenism, the historic city of Trebizond on the Pontos whose emperors were patrons of letters, arts and especially sciences, Harry built in the New World an everlasting memorial to the land of his ancestors and the Grand Komnenoi. The Center for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies at Queens College to which he devoted his life is in the words of Thucydides “κτῆμα ἐς αἰί.”
