

The Journal of Modern Hellenism

The Journal of Modern Hellenism is a refereed journal published annually by the Center for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies of Queens College, City University of New York, the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Centre for Hellenic Studies at Simon Fraser University, Canada, and the Hellenic Studies Program at California State University, Sacramento. The purpose of the Journal is to reflect activities of the sponsoring institutions in promoting scholarly work on the history, language, institutions, and culture of the Greek people and the Greek Diaspora from the late Byzantine period to the present. Each issue is built around a central theme. The views expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsoring institutions.
